A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Reason for Minister's Flight.

Mrs. Delia E. Dalrymple, wife of Rev. C. H. Dalrymple, the Unitarian clergyman, of Worcester, Mass., who recently mysteriously disappeared from Millbury, to be located a couple of days ago in Chicago, caused a sensation yesterday when she gave out a long, carefully prepared interview, outlining the real reasons for the flight.

Mrs. Dalrymple alleges that her life has been made miserable by the irritability of her husband who often threatened to commit suicide because she refused to allow him to check out of the bank money left her by her father; also that Rev. Dalrymple had threatened to have a commission appointed to declare his wife incapable of transacting business, making a third charge against her husband Mrs. Dalrymple said:

"The third cause was my husband's relation with another woman. One of the interested parties [Miss Nora B. Weston] believing that the story must soon become public, notified her parents of the situation and wrote me a letter, in which permission was given to use the same, as I saw fit." Miss Weston begs forgiveness of Mrs. Dalrymple for the great wrong done her. She calls attention to her youth and innocence prior to this and her inability to withstand temptation. She was a mere slip of a girl, sixteen, when she entered the Dalrymple home five years ago. She is an extremely beautiful young woman and has become a singer. She disappeared after writing the letter.

Boycott Cause of the Trouble.

Assistant United States District Attorney Black gained further evidence in San Francisco yesterday regarding the attack on the Japanese resturant, which has now become an international episode. He failed to find anything likely to cause trouble with Japan.

Four white witnesses and the Japanese were examined. All the whites agreed that the trouble developed from the labor union boycott. These witnesses said there had been a fight in the street due to a laboring man coming out of a restaurant and being asked whether he was a union man. He declared he was not and was set upon and badly beaten. This drew a large crowd which was still present when trouble arose between a lather and a teamster. A Japanese cook appeared with a big knife, and in the struggle this knife was thrown through a pane of glass. At this one of the crowd remarked: "I guess they want their windows broken. Well, we'll help them out." With this, they destroyed the windows, including those lettered, "Stop! Try our wonder meals." The Japanese were examined, but they revealed nothing yet made public. The report of investigation was sent to Attorney General Bonsparte.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

Davis Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c.

Eighteen Indictments Against Jordan

The May grand jury, in New York, which has been investigating the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, yesterday returned 18 indictments against Thomas D. Jordon, formerly controller of the Equitable. Perjury and forgery in the third degree was charged. No indictments were found against present officials of the society.

Mr. Jordan will appear in the Supreme Court today to plead to the indictments and furnish bail.

As in the case of John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who was indicted by the same grand jury, the indictments against Jordan are based on year-end transactions recorded in the books of the Equitable while Jordan was its comptroller. These consist of entries made prior to the annual report to the State Department of Insurance and designed, it is charged, to mislead the superintendent of insurance as to the real condition of the company. Specifically, the forgery indictments are founded on bookkeeping alterations and the charge of perjury on statements made to the insurance department.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Here is one from Mrs. De Jarnette:

"I appreciate highly the beautiful presents sent me from you from time to time and will say that your coffee is the leading brand on the market.* * * the purest, best and healthiest coffee ever made I have been a user of it for 25 years and will want it as long as life lasts. The coffee is worth three times its present market value."

Babies Fed to Sacred Snake.

In spite of the fact that a similar charge was investigated and dismissed by the grand jury some time ago, another complaint has been filed with United States District Attorney Llewellyn, of New Mexico, that a tribe of Indians in that Territory are given to the worship of an enormous serpent, to which is fed the new-born babes of a pueblo in which it is housed and carefully tended and guarded. The complaint was filed by a Catholic priest, who alleges that a dozen families were segregated from several pueblos two years ago and formed into a pueblo by themselves. Although it is known that many children have been born to these families, not a child is to be found in the pueblo. This led the priest to press his investigations, with the result, as alleged, that he discovered that in an adode house, isolated and closely guarded, there is an enormous serpent, which is worshipped by the Indians of all the pueblos around, and that every babe born in the small pueblo, and it is suspected in many others, is fed to the serpent.

Held for Grand Jury.

At the conclusion of a hearing before United States Commissioner Rogers in Baltimore yesterday Miss Bessie L. Bond, for many years prominent in the work of the M. E. Church South there, was held for the action of the United States grand jury on a charge of raising a bank note from $10 to $100. Secret Service Agent Charles E. Wright produced the altered note and showed where portions of a Buffalo bank note had been pasted over a $10 note of the Loudoun National Bank, Leesburg. He also produced two $10 notes from which portions fitting the pieces added to the raised note had been torn. These notes were recovered from the Treasury Department, to which Miss Bond had forwarded them with a request for redemption.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 29, 1907.

THE first step looking toward the bringing back into the city limits of the railroad stations which nearly two years ago were removed to Fairfax county, was taken by the City Council last night and it is hoped that the effort in that direction will soon prove successful. The people of Alexandria have suffered much inconvenience in getting to and from the new union station and relief should soon be afforded them. It should be remembered that Alexandria annually appropriates one-third of her entire revenues to pay interest on the money spent to build these roads which now run around instead of into the city.

THE problem of obtaining good city government, everywhere a foremost question, has probably nowhere been so nearly solved as in Texas, where several cities are now enjoying exemplary administration under the commission plan. Galveston was the first to put the plan in operation, and the results were so gratifying that two years ago Houston obtained from the legislature a similar charter. The success of the Houston government has been equally as pronounced as that of Galveston, and now Dallas, with a population of 80,000; Fort Worth, with a population of 70,000, and several smaller cities, have followed suit, and others are preparing to do so. Memphis, Tenn., has also adopted the plan, and other large citids throughout the country have it under consideration.

MR. C. M. SCHWAB, of Pittsburg, is credited with being of the opinion that the steel rail now in use is not of the right material or shape to support the fast and heavy trains of the present day. He says the only solution he sees is a nickel-steel rail, which, it is estimated, will cost three times as much as Bessemer. Some nickel rails have been used and, while the results were not entirely satisfactory, they showed that a nickel rail could be produced that would surpass all others. Broken rails are now a common cause of railroad accidents and as the weight of locomotives and cars has been increased it would seem but natural that heavier and better rails should be put into use.

IN AN opinion rendered by Associate Justice Brewer, of the Supreme Court, recently, in the case of Kansas versus Colorado, the contention is made that Congress has no power, after creating a court, to limit its judicial powers. This is the position taken by former Senator Spooner in his debate on the rate bill in the Senate. Justice Brewer says that the judicial power of a nation extends to all controversies justiciable in their nature, and when this power was vested in the courts of the nation it must be held to embrace all controversies arising within the territorial limits of the nation, no matter who may be the parties thereto.

THAT Speaker Cannon, of the House, has been known as the bulwark of standpatism, would run for the presidency as a tariff revisionist was asserted at Chicago Wednesday by his close friend, Senator Hopkins, who is himself a candidate for re-election on the same platform. He says that Speaker Cannon has admitted all along that some schedules needed revision, but held that none should be touched until the whole list could be altered consistently. This, he thinks, should be done after the next republican victory. This was but another case of manana.

From Washington.

Washington, May 29.

The Weather Bureau finally promises relief from the present almost unprecedented season of cold weather in its forecast, issued today, the bureau says it will be warmer tonight in the middle and south Atlantic states and the upper Ohio Valley. Not for a quarter of a century has the country at large suffered from such low temperatures as have prevailed in the past month. In many localities the thermometer has broken all authenticated records for May. Nearly everywhere the mercury has been registering from 5 to 12 degrees below the normal seasonable average. Killing frosts have swept over a large section of the United States, and in some places snows have fallen later in the month than ever before. This was notable in Chicago, where there was a snow storm on the 27th, three days later than in May, 1894, which piled up the record up to this time. The following minimum temperatures in the past 24 hours are reported: Washington 42; Boston 42; Albany 40; New York 46; Philadelphia 48; Buffalo 42; Atlanta 56; Cincinnati 50; Cleveland 48; Chicago 54.

Now that the German tariff question has been temporarily adjusted, it is expected that steps will soon be taken by the State Department to bring about a somewhat similar commercial agreement with France. Trade relations between that country and the United States have been seriously threatened recently and the situation has been made more acute by the success of Germany in securing concessions from this county. Threats have been made by France which, if put into execution, would destroy practically the only remaining market for Porto Rican coffee and put prohibitive rates on American cotton seed oil a number of manufactured articles. avert this, it is believed that the U States will shortly enter into negotiations, offering to France the same concessions which have been made to Germany in return for the most favored nation treatment for American goods. The French particularly desired reduced rates on the importation of champagnes into this country.

The text of the treaty of Ampala, which ended the recent war between Nicaragua and Salvador has at last reached the State Department here. It provides for a conference at which a treaty of obligatory arbitration is to be concluded between all the five Central American States. It also provides that until that treaty has been negotiated and ratified all questions of difference between Salvador and Nicaragua shall be submitted to the arbitration of the President of the United States and Mexico.

Attorney General Bonaparte is putting the finishing touches to his final decision on the question "what is whisky, whisky?" From his public utterances, and from what he has said to friends in discussing the subject, it is understood that he has made no material change in his former opinion, when he held that the addition of coloring or flavoring matter to whisky made it compound whisky under the new pure food law.

If U. S. Minister O'Brien, as reported from Copenhagen, has again taken up with the Danish government the question of the sale to the United States of the Danish West Indies he has done so on his own responsibility. The Uprising in China.

Swatow, China, May 29,—Missionaries from the interior districts of China are flocking to this city, fearing for their lives in the present uprising of the Triad Society. So far the only report of an attack on a missionary comes from Lien Chow, where a German mission is said to have been destroyed. Missionaries of all nationalities fear the uprising may assume an anti-foreign complexing at any time, and they are abandoning their stations and rushing to Swatow to insure their safety.

Hong Kong, China, May 29.—Two large detachment of troops are now on their way from Swatow and Shiuhing going into the rebellious sections Kwan Tung Province ready to meet the armed rebels and put down the uprising. It is feared the task is greater, however, than the troops at the disposal of the authorities can accomplish.

A report received today indicates the practices to which the rebellious Triads are resorting. Rebels captured the family of a Chinese brigadier general. Refraining from outright murder, the rebels compelled every member of the family to jump into a deep well. All were drowned. Reports of similar outrages coming in from various sections of the disturbed area have ceused the greatest anxiety.

The first reports of the uprising declared fully 30,000 of the Triads are in revolt. Many of these are well armed, so that little more is expected of the forces sent into the field than to restrain other Chinese from joining the uprising. Until the heavy reinforcements arrive it will be almost impossible for the military to really accomplish anything toward quelling the insurrection.

Advices from Swatow say the authorities there regard the situation as extremely serious.

Canton, China, May 29.—The Manchu dynasty in China is seriously threatened by the Triad uprising which broke out last week and which already has swept over a great portion of the province of Kwang-Tung. The strongest supporters of the Emperor and the Dowager Empress here admit that the situation is grave.

Behind the rebellion is just one object the overthrow of the dynasty. Hundreds of thousands of Chinese are tired of the rule of the Dowager Empress. Once the Kwang-Tung movement gets a good start it is certain to make great headway in other provinces. A proclamation issued by the Swatan revolutionary party declares there is no anti-foreign feeling. The rebels announce their intention to attack every Yaen and exterminate all officials.

An army of 10,000 well-armed Triads is on the march in Kwang-Tung province and against this force not more than 2,500 soldiers can be mustered until reinforcements arrive. Fighting is anticipated in the interior if the troops attempt to quell the insurgents.

Funeral of Mrs. McKinley.

Canton, O., May 29.—Waiting the funeral this afternoon the body of Ida Saxton McKinley lies in the front room of the McKinley residence in north Market street. In that same room, in other years, when William McKinley was a young attorney, governor and president of the nation, guests gathered to greet this pair. In this room his body lay six years ago. Her hands, crossed upon her breast, are thin and wasted. But the face shows few marks of her long illness. It wears the look of peaceful sleep.

Thousands of Canton people passed through this room in a long line yesterday. This morning the few callers were those who have come from other cities to attend the funeral.

Vice President Fairbanks arrived here yesterday and called at the McKinley residence late in the day. He is at the home of Justice W. R. Day, where President Roosevelt, arriving at noon, will be entertained.

The music for the funeral includes two hymns that formed a part of the funeral services for Wm. McKinley six years ago. "Lead Kindly Light," and Nearer, My God, to Thee," words that were on the lips of the President when he died at Buffalo.

Flags are at half mast. Hotel lobbies and store windows are draped in mourning. Nearly all the shops will close at noon, as will the public schools and offices.

The funeral of Mrs. McKinley this afternoon was simple as her life had been. No sermon was preached. Rev. E. O. Buxton, pastor of her church, read a simple service and a little later the plain casket that holds her form was placed in the vault at West Lawn Cemetery where the body of the dead President lies. They lie there side by side. The services closed with the Lord's Prayer.

In the procession to the cemetery the clergyman and the pallbearers followed the hearse. Mrs. McBarber, sister of Mrs. McKinley, and Mr. McBarber were in the first of the carriages. Then came the President's carriage. With President Roosevelt were Vice President Fairbanks, Elihu Root and Secretary Loeb. Secret Service men were in the carriage close behind. James R. Garfield, Secretary Wilson, Surgeon-General Rixey and Assistant Secretary Latta, were in another hack that followed.

Killed by Deputy Sheriff.

Crisfield, Md., May 29.—Frederick Long, aged 28 years, a resident of Kingston, Md., was shot and killed by William Chelton, a deputy sheriff, near the former's home, early this morning in a pistol duel. Long, who had been indicted for stealing an overcoat, was being taken to Princess Anne jail yesterday when he escaped from the deputy sheriff. He eluded his guard while they were changing cars at Peninsula Junction. Sheriff Brown, of Somerset county, and Chelton went to Long's home and awaited his return. He made his appearance early this morning. When confronted by the officers Long opened fire upon them. None of the shots were effective, however, and when Chelton discharged his pistol at the prisoner a bullet lodged in Long's heart,

Queen Maud's Narrow Escape.

Plead Guilty.

New York, May 29.—After having caused the prosecution of Frank W. Hill, his former confidential stenographer, who, gave out his now famous "where I do stand?" letter which involved him in a hot dispute with President Roosevelt, E. H. Harriman today begged for clemency for the stenographer when he pleaded guilty to making the letter public. Hill escaped under a suspended sentence. This is expected to close the incident.

Killed by Spring Gun.

Providence, R. I., May 29.—A spring gun, set to kill rats in the barn of Wm. A. Capwell, caused the death of Norman, his ten-year-old son. The trap had been rigged up by Norman and his brother, Clarke, aged 14, and had made away with a number of rats when the boys invited friends in to see it work. Clarke was testing the trap when his brother got in range of the bullet and was killed. The brother is delirious today and under the doctor's care.

Collapse of Strike.

Philadelphia, May 29.—There has been a virtual collapse of the strike of the longshoremen who were working for the Merchants' and Mariners' Transportation Company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Both of these concerns brought several hundred men from Baltimore to take the places of the strikers, and though the strikers grumble and threatened to drive the strike breakers from the piers, there has been no disturbance up to the present time.

Repudiates Confession.

New York, May 29.—Declaring the confession he made of the killing of Amelia Stafeldt, the Elmhurst girl killed in the fields near her home while picking dandelions last week, had been drummed into him by the police and that he was not guilty of the murder, Henry Becker, the suspect in the case, was held to the Queen county grand jury in the Flushing police court today.

Stranger Arouses Suspicion.

Canton, O., May 29.—Lurking about the home of Justice Wm. R. Day, where Vice President Fairbanks was a guest last night and President Roosevelt is to be a guest today, a strange man was seen and two men stood guard over the house all night. Chief Inspector Sutton, of the United States Secret Service, who is here, was also notified.

City Council.

There was but little business of special importance transacted at the regular meeting of the City Council last night.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney, of the finance committee, presented the appropriation bill for the year ending May 31, 1908, which was read the second and third times and passed by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Sweeney also presented the report of the joint committees on general laws and finance recommending the payment of a bill of the Pinkerton Detective Agency of $378 28 for services in connection with the investigation of the murder of George N. Curtin. The committees in their report called attention to the fact that the expense had been contracted by the Mayor out of the regular order of procedure in such cases, and should not afford a precedent in future, although the members were satisfied that the executive was animated by the best motives.

The report was adopted by a unanimous vote. It will be found in the official proceedings.

A resolution appropriating $1,000 for the construction of a broken stone roadway on Royal street, from Queen to Princess, received from the Common Council at the last meeting and laid over, was passed.

Mr. Summers introduced a resolution, which was referred to the Committees on Streets and General Laws, compelling the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to provide and equip all its cars with improved wheel fenders.

The Aldermen refused to concur in the action of the Common Council in adopting a resolution requiring the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to appoint a special policeman at the station at the corner of Prince and Royal streets, and referred the same to the committees on police and general laws with the request that they prepare an ordinance requiring the company to appoint such officer.

The board concurred in the action of the Common Council on all the other papers sent in.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order at 8:15 o'clock.

The annual license law for the year commencing June 1, 1907, and ending May 31, 1908, passed by the Aldermen at the last meeting, was read the third time and passed by a unanimous vote. The bill is identical with that of last year.

The report of the committees on finance and police in favor of increasing the salary of the members of the police force $5, the increase to go into effect June 1st, which was laid over at the last meeting, was unanimously passed.

house No. 118 south Fayette to erect two frame houses on Pendleton street.

Dr. Klipstein also asked permission to erect a frame section in rear of building to be built on King, near the corner of St. Asaph street.

Several members made inquiries concerning the request.

Mr. Leadbeater explained the ideas of Dr. Klipstein and stated that the sides and roof would be of tin.

After some comment by several of the members, the request was granted providing the adjoining property-owners do not object.

The committee on finance reported favorably an appropriation of $2,800 to bring the appropriation for public schools up to the appropriation of last year and the measure was adopted.

A petition from the Reliance Fire Engine Company asking an appropriation of $100 to help defray the expenses of that company to Newport News during the firemen's convention was referred to the committee on finance.

A resolution appropriating $600 for a pipe sewer on Washington street from Pendleton to Wythe, was referred to the committee on streets.

Permission was granted Mr. T. C. Howard, providing adjoining property owners do not object, to enlarge his summer kitchen at his residence, No. 711 Cameron street. The petition stated that the kitchen would have a metal roof.

Mr. Strauss offered a resolution requesting the W., A. & Mt. V. Railway Co. to employ a special officer at the corner of Prince and Royal streets to abate the noise and other nuisances that exist there.

Mr. Strauss said the residents of that neighborhood were constantly annoyed by the boys playing ball in the streets and by them committing various nuisances.

Mr. Leadbeater suggested that the "guides" be looked after.

Mr. Spinks said he was in favor of a special officer and said from his own observation one should be supplied. As this point was the terminal of the road in the city a special policeman in uniform should be placed there.

The resolution was unanimously passed.

A petition from sundry persons for a light at the corner of Franklin and Union streets was referred to the committee on light.

A petition was received from the paid members of the fire department asking that a man be employed to relieve the regular men from time to time and to serve as a utility employee in case of emergency requiring the use of the reserve engine. The petition was signed by the Fire Wardens and members of the companies. The matter was referred to the committee on finance.

A resolution calling upon the committees on finance and general laws to consider and report as to what legislation, if any, is necessary to have the city represented before the State Corporation Commission to require the railroad companies that formerly entered the city to again land passengers and freight within the city limits, and also to ascertain the reasons for the great reduction in the value placed on the real estate and tracks now owned by the railway companies in this city was introduced by Mr. Snowden.

Mr. Snowden (Mr. Uhler in the chair) said the resolution was one of inquiry for information for the benefit of council. The town of Strasburg had been treated by the railroads just as they have treated Alexandria. The matter had been taken before the Corporation Commission, and that body had directed that the railroads should not only run their trains into the town of Strasburg but that they should erect a suitable station for the accomodation of passengers. It was a great inconvenience for the citizens of Alexandria to get to and from the present depot. The democratic district committee had been called to meet here, but the members said it was inconvenient for them to get to and from the depot and the committee had decided to meet in Washington, across from the Sixth street depot, so that after the meeting they could get the proper train facilities. The railroads had no sure ground for the placing of their station in Fairfax county, as was evidenced by the removal of their freight station back to this city, after they had located it at the new union depot. He contended that it was an injustice to the people of this city and should be remedied. Citizens of Alexandria were now paying one-third of the entire revenues of the city to meet the interest on money spent to build these roads.

Mr. Spinks said he hoped Council would take no hasty action in regard to the railroads. The city was now surrounded by railroads, and had the best facilities of any city in Virginia. The railroad company had promised to tear up its rails on Henry street and fix the street, but had not kept its promise. The people in that section of the city had suffered much and were heartily glad when the railroads had gone outside of the city. He contended that he did not see any inconvenience. He said that the residents of that section of the city were constantly in dread of their children being killed when the railway tracks had passed through the city.

Mr. Birrell—"When a man reaches the age of the gentleman from the Fourth ward he need have no apprehension about his children."

Mr. Snowden said Alexandria was the only city in the United States with 15,000 population that did not have a station within its limits. He hoped Council would pass the resolution.

Mr. Strauss was in favor of the passage of the bill, and said it was the best that had been introduced in Council since he had been a member.

Mr. Snowden said in the city of Petersburg a resolution to compel the railroads to run outside the city limits had been put to a vote of the citizens and almost unanimously killed.

Mr. Birrell said the railroads had gone outside the city to escape taxation. He said that more children had been killed by electric cars than by steam trains. The station formerly in the city had not been fit for horses, and now the depot was in Fairfax county. He thought the resolution should be passed.

Mr. Spinks said the property owners were satisfied with the present condition and did not want the railroads running through the city again. They were much better off. Conditions had been different in Strasburg. The junction was 1½ miles from the city, and there had been no electric roads, no cabs and no conveniences. The police could not attend to all the trains passing through the city and see if the flagmen were in their places.

Mr. Evans—"If the police would stay in the city and run outside to Hunting creek and not across the canal after crap shooters we would have better protection."

The resolution was finally passed.

The annual appropriation bill for the fiscal year commencing June 1, 1907, and ending May 31, 1908, was read and laid over under the rule. The appropriations amount to $131,000, or $6,000 over last year.

A resolution providing for the drafting of an ordinance requiring the W., A. & Mt. V. Railway Co. to equip its cars with wheel fenders was referred to the committees on streets and general laws.

The finance and general law committees reported on the bill of $378.28 from the Pinkerton Detective Agency for services in connection with the effort to solve the Curtin murder mystery, with the recommendation that the bill be paid. The report stated that the bill had been created by the Mayor without authority, but that it would be to the city's interest to pay it. The committee said they hoped a similar case would not happen again, and that the payment in this instance might not serve as a precedent.

Mr. Williams said the report of the committee cast a reflection on the Mayor.

He declared that Council, had expressed surprise when the Mayor and the Commonwealth's Attorney had only asked for $100 to be used in the Curtin case, and that when Capt. Bryan, then chairman of the committee on finance, had explained that his committee stood ready to approve additional appropriations within reason, Council had given its assent. He declared that he could not vote to accept the report until the strictures on the Mayor had been eliminated.

Mr. Brill charged that the committee had taken advantage of the Mayor's absence from the city to bring in a report chiding him for his conduct.

Mr. Burke of the committee, said that Mr. Brill's statement was "not so," and further denied that the committee had made a "covert" attack on the Mayor, as some one had suggested. He then explained that the members of the committee believed that the Mayor had acted with the best intention, but asserted that the comment in the report was necessary to guard against future danger in that line.

Mr. Evans said the Mayor had vetoed an appropriation of $500, as a reward in another case, on the grounds that the constitution limited Council to an appropriation of $100 in such cases, and by paying a bill for $378.28 had placed himself in a very awkward position. He said if the Mayor could spend $300 of the city's money he could spend $3,000. Council was the only body that could make appropriations and as the Mayor had paid the money he should not ask Council to reimburse him. The Mayor had vetoed the action of Council for passing unconstitutional measures and now wanted Council to pay a bill which had been contracted unconstitutionally by the Mayor, who was now in a "fix."

Mr. Williams said Mr. Evans must discriminate between money appropriated as a reward and money appropriated for police expenses.

Mr. Birrell said he was of the opinion that the committee did not intend to cast a reflection on the Mayor, but on his usurping authority. He was satisfied that the Mayor had done what he thought was best, but would not vote for the report.

Mr. Williams said the police of the city could not do detective work when some of its citizens were suspected, and said that the Mayor should not be criticized for during his duty.

Mr. Burke said he thought Council should have been first asked concerning the matter.

Several members declared that they would not vote for the report while it contained what they considered severe strictures on the mayor.

After a further heated discussion by several of the members, and after motion to postpone actions &c had been lost, a motion to concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen and pay the bill was lost by a vote of 7, to 6, not a constitutional majority.

Several motions were then made concerning the bill, but the chairman declared that the report of the committee had been defeated and that there was nothing before council. Mr. Evans then moved to adjourn and no one dissenting the meeting was declared adjourned.

Official.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Alexandria, Va., held May 28, 1907, there were present:

J. R. N. Curtin, President, and Messrs Hill, Marbury, Ballenger, Field, Sweeney and Summers.

A resolution appropriating $1,000 to build a broken stone roadway on Royal street, from Queen to Princess, received from the Common Council May 14, 1907, and laid over, was passed by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Summers introduced a resolution directing the Corporation Attorney to prepare an ordinance requiring the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to provide and equip its cars passing through the streets of Alexandria with improved wheel fenders, and providing a penalty of $25 for every violation of said ordinance.

The resolution was referred to the Committees on Streets and General Laws.

Mr. Sweeney presented a report of the joint Committees on Finance and General Laws recommending the payment of a bill of $378.28 of the Pinkerton Detective Agency for services in endeavoring to identify the murderer or murderers of George N. Curtin. The report, which was as follows, was adopted by a unanimous vote:

"Your joint Committees on Finance and General Laws recommend the payment of the inclosed bills for services rendered by the Pinkerton Detective Agency in the Curtin murder case, amounting to $378.28.

"These bills have been created, or allowed to be created, without any authority or precedent so far as your committees have been able to discover. If any agent for the city of Alexandria had a right to create or allow these bills to be created that agent would have the same right to create any debt and call upon the City Council to pay it.

"This expense was incurred for the purpose of running down and bringing to justice the perpetrator of a most horrible crime which was committed in our city, but we call your attention to the fact that the Commonwealth of Virginia reserves to itself the right to run down and punish criminals guilty of such crimes.

"The Commonwealth even limits the amount of reward a city may offer for the apprehension of criminals.

"The Council will remember that our Executive vetoed a bill offering a reward of $500 for the apprehension of a criminal, or criminals, guilty of similar crime to the one referred to in this bill.

"The Executive called our attention to the law governing such matters, and gave that as his reason for refusing to approve the said bill. It would seem from this method of doing business that our Executive has the authority to contract monetary obligations which it is unlawful for Council itself to incur, but we are expected to find authority to pay such indebtedness.

"However much your joint committees dislike to recommend the payment of any bills created in this irregular way, and we admit we have no precedent or law for our action, we have decided that in our opinion it is for the best interest of our city that these bills should be paid.

"We do not make this recommendation on account of any doubt we may have as to the outcome of any litigation our city might have as to its responsibility for these bills, but we make this report simply to support well-meant actions of our Executive.

"We hope a similar case to this may never occur, and that this may not be a precedent for any future action."

Mr. Sweeney also submitted the appropriation bill for the year ending June 1, 1908, which was read the second and third times and passed by a unanimous vote.

A resolution requesting the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to place a special officer at the Royal street station was received from the Common Council, their action non-concurred in and the resolution referred to the Committees on Police and Finance with a request that they prepare an ordinance compelling the company to provide such officer.

A resolution appropriating $2,800 additional for the use of the public schools of the city was received from the Common Council and laid over under the rules.

The following were received from the Common Council and their action concurred in:

Reports of the Committee on Streets on petitions of George T. Klipstein for permission to construct an addition to frame building No. 118 south Fayette street; also for permission to build a frame section to brick store and dwelling in the lot adjoining the southwest corner of King and St. Asaph streets; also to erect two frame houses on north Pendleton street.

Resolution appropriating $600 for the extension of the pipe sewer on Washington street south of Pendleton street to within 20 feet of Wythe street.

Petition of T. C. Howard for permission to enlarge the summer kitchen of house No. 711 Cameron street.

Petition of the engineer and drivers of the fire department to authorize the Board of Fire Wardens to elect an additional engineer and driver.

Petition of the Reliance Fire Company for an appropriation of $100 to aid in defraying the expenses of the members of the company in their visit to the firemen's convention in Newport News.

Petition of sundry citizens for a light at Franklin and Union streets.

Resolution requesting the Committees on Finance and General Laws to consider and report what legislation is necessary to have the city represented before the Corporation Commission in order to compel the various railroads which formerly had passenger and freight depots in this city to erect such within the corporate limits; also to ascertain the reason for the great reduction in value placed on the real estate and tracks owned by the company in the city of Alexandria.

The board then adjourned.

J. R. N. CURTIN, President.

Disinherited Children.

Silas Putnam, who murdered Mrs. Emma Deavers and later took his own life at his home near Falls Church, last Saturday night, by his last will, dated February 12, 1906, disinherited his older children. The will is to be contested.

The document was opened by F. W. Richardson, clerk of the Fairfax county Court, yesterday, under an order signed by Judge Louis C. Barley. Putnam bequeathed only $1 each to his older children. He devised the major portion of his property, including his personal effects and the house wherein the tragedy was enacted, to his two youngest children, Mamie and Lewis Putnam.

The testator provides that if one child dies, the ownership of the property shall vest in the other child. In the event both die, the property is to vest in the next youngest children, Florence and Bessie Putnam.

Pending further order of the court, Mayor John T. Payne, of Falls Church, has been appointed curator of the estate. Miss Elizabeth Deavers, an aunt of the five little orphan children of Mrs. Deavers, has been appointed their guardian.

The body of Mrs. Deavers was interred in the family lot near Manassas, yesterday afternoon. The only mourners present were Gertrude and May, the murdered woman's two oldest daughters; Miss Elizabeth Deavers, of this city, and Charles Fair, Mrs. Deaver's father.

What disposition will be made of the five little children has not yet been definitely decided. The two oldest, however will be put to work.

Chas. Fair, of Manassas, was stricken with paralysis at the grave of his murdered daughter, Mrs. Emma Deavers, yesterday. He was immediately carried home and medical aid summoned. It is believed he will die.

Towns Will Incorporate.

Citizens of Del Ray and St. Elmo, Alexandria county, at a meeting held last night under the auspices of the Citizen's Improvement Association, voted in favor of incorporating those towns and the intervening territory. The original proposition was to include Braddock Heights in the new town, but the plan was opposed by those representing Braddock Heights, who said they would not enter the proposed consolidation under one government, whereupon the citizens of Del Ray and St. Elmo decided to combine without the other subdivision. A committee was then appointed, consisting of Walter U. Varney, chairman; J. D. Ashford, and Robert Elliott, to draw up plans for the incorporation and to present a plot of the territory to be included in the town. The committee will interview the citizens generally, and will make a report at the next regular meeting of the association.

Pretty Dance.

The Golf Club House was the scene of a beautiful dance last night given by Mr. Mahlon H. Janney, which was attended by about fifty young people from this city and Washington. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. John Leadbeater and Miss Phil Wattles. The mantel piece in the reception room, where the dancing was enjoyed, was banked with orange blossoms and the room was lighted by candles and softly shaded lamps. The south end of the porch was lighted by Japanese lanterns; there the chaperons and some not caring to dance played bridge. Among the guests from Washington were Misses Emma Dent Casey, Agnes and Josephine Harvey, Helen Gill, Virginia Wallis, Lucille Devol and Messrs. Charles Cheyney, William Cassin, Frank Green, William Waggaman, and Dr. Charles Billard.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Frank Towson, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

Charged with Vagrancy.

The police yesterday arrested George Lennon and Frank Towson (the last named a one-legged man), charged with vagrancy. Lennon was sent to jail for twenty days by Justice Caton this morning. He is said to be a cigarmaker by occupation, but prefers the life of an itinerant umbrella-mender. Towson is one of several one-legged men who have recently annoyed people living in the western section of the city. He was dismissed upon promising to leave the city. A one-legged man caused some disorder and the assembling of a large crowd at King and Payne streets last Sunday afternoon.

Improving Cameron Street.

The work of laying the cobblestone roadway on Cameron street, between Lee and Union, is nearing completion. When the carriageway shall have been completed, granolithic sidewalks with granite curbing will be laid. The vitrified bricks and granite curbing which are to be laid on Cameron street from Royal to Fairfax have arrived, and the work of improving that square will soon be commenced.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Washington beef and Provision Company, Incorporated, of Alexandria. Incorporators—James C. Anderson, president, Washington; W. A. Johnston, secretary, Kensington, Md.; H. J. Staley, treasurer, Washington. Capital stock—Maximum $2,000; minimum, $200.

Llewellyn Lane, colored, escaped from the chain gang yesterday.

Eagles' Excursion.

The excursion yesterday and last night of Alva Aerie of this city to Luna Park was well patronized by Alexandrians, all of whom enjoyed the different attractions at the resort. They were, however, loud in their complaints of the discomfort they experienced on their nocturnal return trip from the park. Those connected with the resort had published a statement to the effect that the comfort of Alexandrians would receive special attention this season, and that cars for this city would leave in front of the main gate. Last summer, it will be remembered, people from this city were compelled to walk often in the rain to the foot of a hill and wait unsheltered in the mud for through trains to come along. Washingtonians could in the meantime enter cars on which to return home at the gate of the park, and trains were always standing there for their accomodation. Alexandrians, however, were subjected to the same inconveniences last night of which they complained last summer. Men, women and children huddled in the shadow of the same old mud bank and wait patiently for trains from Washington to come along. The crowd was so dense that large numbers were unable to get standing room when a train arrived, and they were compelled to remain standing, some with children asleep in their arms, and await the arrival of other through trains. It was after midnight before all could reach their homes.

"An Evening in Dixie."

The "Evening in Dixie," under the auspices of the 17th Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., at Lee Camp Hall last night, was a perfect success. The beautiful rooms of the hall were decorated in laurel, sent from Goshen Pass for the purpose, and Confederate flags over the pictures and in the doorways. Southern songs were sung by Mr. Parker Reinohl, baritone soloist at St. John's Church, Washington; Mr. Francis A. Reinohl, of Washington; Miss Blanche Rotchford, Mr. Kenneth Ogden and Mr. George H. Evans. The drill of the children with Confederate flags was splendid and all present were loud in their praises of Miss Blanche Rotchford, who trained them in the drill and their charming little "Good Night." One of the hits of the evening was made by little Miss Lucille Dienel: in a recitation, which called forth prolonged applause. The ladies are to be complimented upon giving one of the most delightful entertainments of the season. Those in charge were Mrs. William Ogden, Mrs. India Henderson, Mrs. J. M. Hill, Miss Blanche Rotchford, Mrs. R. S. Cleveland, Mrs. W. W. McCaffrey, Miss Mary Gorman, Mrs. William D Wood and Mrs. Blanche Berkley.

JUDGE LOVING INDICTED.

As stated in the Gazette of that day Judge W. G. Loving was, at Livingston, Nelson county, yesterday indicted for the murder of Theodore Estes. Judge Loving pleaded not guilty.

After brief argument on the question of bail, that matter was postponed, and the reading of affidavits on the motion of change of venue was begun. The first of these was by Judge Loving himself, and deals with the high standing and wide popularity of Sheriff Estes, the father of the slain man, and Mr. Kidd, clerk of the court, his uncle.

Court adjourned later and Judge Barksdale granted bail in the sum of $10,000, double the former amount, on which the accused was released at Oak Ridge April 23. Judge Horsley, of Lynchburg, signed the bond. After court reconvened the question of a change of venue was again discussed, and it will undoubtedly be granted.

After a conference Loving's counsel proposed that the matter of the change of venue be submitted without argument. Whitehead said that they wanted to argue. Mr. Strode opened the argument for Loving's side on this question. Daniel Harman replied, and R. Walton Moore replied for Loving.

Court reserved decision until today.

By a vote of 5 to 3 the State Board of Education after a spirited controversy in Richmond last night, elected Mr. Edmund Pendleton, of that city, to succeed Hon. Charles V. Meredith as a member of the State Library Board, and this result clearly foreshadows the passing of Librarian John P. Kennedy at the first meeting of the newly constituted body, early in June. It was learned today that Mr. Kennedy will resign as State Librarian following Mr. Pendleton's election to the library board.

Millers' Convention.

St. Louis, Mo., May 29.—The railroad side of the question of governmental regulation was presented to the millers' convention here today, in a speech by President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway.

After declaring that he favored proper governmental regulations President Finley said:

The right of governmental regulation of railroads, privately owned, is based upon, and must find its limit, in the right and duty of government to protect the public from oppression and wrong. In other words, the right of the government and the limits of its just power, in this connection, is to protect and redress some right of the railroad patron or public, generally. Every other business expects, and under the law, is entitled to receive, a reasonable price for what it sells. This right is an incident to all property, and I do not believe that, when public sentiment deliberately considers the merits of this proposition as applied to the carriers, it will be slow to recognize the justice of the claim that the right to charge a reasonable, and not discriminatory, price for the commodity which it sells, namely transportation, is a right justly inherent in the property of the carrier and cannot justly or constitutionally be denied to it. If men and women with money to invest are to be induced to put it in railway properties, they must have reasonable assurance that it will be safe and that it will yield on an average as great a return as other investments of equal safety. It is a well-known fact that faith in American railway investments has been shaken within the past few months. The situation is of sufficient gravity and importance to justify the profoundest attention of the conservative and substantial people of this country.

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

Predicts Greater Bible.

Professor Nathaniel Schmidt, of the department of Semitic languages and Oriental history of Cornell University, in a recent newspaper interview expressed the opinion that the Bible of the future would contain all the sacred books that have been eliminated from it by a critical process in the ancient synagogues and the early Christian Church. "These books," said the professor, "were at one time in the Bible. Some of them are now in the Catholic Bible, but they have been removed from the latter-day Protestant Bible. They are most inaccessible to the general public, but were widely read by the synagogues and the early church. I mean, for example, such books as the Book of Wisdom of Jesus the Son of Sarach, the Wisdom of Solomon, Judith, Tebit, the Books of the Maccabees, as well as the Psalter of Solomon, the Apocalypses of Enoch, Baruch and Ezra. These books will be restored to their place in the canonical Scriptures. The Bible of the future, moreover, will have to be constantly translated. This will be necessitated by the continued study of the text, by fresh discoveries of texts and by the continued examination of critics.

Belief in Virgin Birth Not Requisite.

Rev. Dr. Broden S. Bowne, a noted Christian philosopher and professor in the Boston University, openly allied himself with the liberal element in all churches discussing the "new theology" yesterday in an address before the Cincinnati Methodist ministers.

"A belief in the virgin birth of Jesus Christ should not be made a requirement of membership in any church," said Dr. Bowne, "Certain questions belong peculiarly to the realm of the scholar, and this is one of them. The man's inner spiritual life and his willingness to live in accordance with the Ten Commandments are the essential things. I do not believe that a man should be expelled from a church because he cannot believe as other men believe. The spirit of Christianity is violated by such an act"

False Eyelashes.

A great many English society women are said to be wearing false eyelashes nowadays. A London beauty specialist has invented a process by which he is able to attach beautiful lashes to lids more or less bald. The lashes will keep in place and look natural for about a month with ordinary usage. When they begin to get loose he sticks them on again and they are good for another month. The process is said to be very expensive.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
